The rumor is again renewed in New York that proceedings are likely to be t ken soon against the men who stole the body of the late A. T. Stewart. The present story is that an accomplice: a confessed, and that eight persons, whose whereabouts are known to detectives have been indicted by the grand jury. It is further said that the repentant ac complice is now dead, and that this faci has increased the difficulties in the way of the prosecution.

A Woman with a Will of Her Own. Princes Pauline, of Wursemburg who has just renounced her title and an privileges of her rank in order to marry the man she loved—Dr. Will, a medical practitioner of Breslau-evidently had a will of her own before she marrisc this one. In a short address preceding the ceremony the officiating clergyman reminded the bridegroom that in marrying him the royal bride had surren-dered a good deal that was esteemed grand and valuable in life. When the bride's turn came to make the marriage response she added to the sylabel "yes" the following words in a quiet tone: "I declare I give up nothing that can at all be valued in cemparison to the happiness awaiting me, and I consider my lot a most enviable one.'

The friends of both candidates will be at the State Convention to urge the claims of their restective favorites. For lieutenant Goveror we would suggest the name of Jul-

For Attorney General, many would like to see Col. S. B. Spuill of this county, fill that position, for the Colonel is a well read lawyer, and even in his old age; three score and ten, a hard student, and many a night he burns the midnight oil, pursuing his legal studies. The Col. is not unknown to fame, both as a lawyer and as a politician, as he represented Tyrell county, in the Legislature of 1832; Northampton in 1840; and Bertie in 1852. He for many years divided the practice in Northampton with Bragg, Noke, Lov-ingload, Bat Moore and others, where their names will load to reason bear beir names will long be remembered as shining lights in the legal profession The Col. was also State Attorney for Northampton county, and never jost a Edgecombe is not choice as to who shall be governor, but will cast a solid vote for the Democratic candidate. I see the name of Col. Thomas M. Holt, of Alamance, has been mentioned for Lieutenant Governor. He is the man the people want. He stood by the Democratic party in its darkest hours. There is not a better man to represent them than Col. Holt. The Colonel has many warm friends in this county. In regard to the Attorney-General-ship public opinion is pretty equally divided between Messrs. THE TOBACCO INTERESTA.

The oppression of the tobacco inter ests by the common consent of all the great commercial powers is an anomaly in an age when there is a canstantly growing tendency to relieve all re straints upon production and upotraffic. The European governments have always seized upon this article as a fair victim for the most cruel of reve nue exactions and have tested its cayacity for endurance even beyond the bounds of this our dearest interests. They all seem to have caught the spirit of King James to whom the suggestion of the fragrant weed was as maddening as the red flag to the enraged animal of a Spenish bull fight. The United States government has caught the same spirit, and most unwisely, unjustlp and vindictive temper imposes upon one of its agricultural staples a burden which nothing but an irrepressible universal demand would enable it to sustain. The cruel feature of this exaction is that it falls back upon the producers, the class of all others a wise government ought to be the most solicitous to protect and encourage. Every other interest languishes when Agriculture fails to prosper.

The total value of the crop of tobacco in the Ynited States is estimated at about $35,000,000, upon which is exacted by revenue laws, excises and tariff, an aggregate revenue to some half dozen governments of $162,000,000; of which the shore of our own paternal guardian
